Iqbal Khan, the dynamic actor, shot to fame after the success of television serial Kaisa Yeh Pyaar Hai on Sony Entertainment Television and Yahaan Main Ghar Ghar Kheli on Zee TV. Apart from TV soaps, he also appeared in films like Fun2shh...Dudes in the 10th Century and Bullet Ek Dhamaka.

All set to essay the lead role in Life OK's Tumhari Paakhi, Iqbal re-invents the idea of fashion.

Fashion is:

It is anything that I am comfortable wearing.

Who chooses your clothes?

Mostly I choose my own clothes or else it would be my wife.

Do you wear accessories?

No.

Do you follow any brands?

I do not follow the zone of brands. However, whenever I shop, I believe in buying basic shades of clothes.

Favourite shopping destination?

My favourite shopping destination is the United States and Dubai.

Most expensive buy:

Hmm....actually, I have never bought something very expensive but I make sure whatever I buy is original.

Clothes you are comfortable in:

I am most comfortable when I wear a jeans and a shirt.

Must have in your wallet:

My driving license and my credit cards are very important and are a must have in my wallet.

Favourite perfume:

I use Attar.

Describe sale in one word:

I feel a woman would be in a better position to answer this question. To me, sale is good.

Currently your wardrobe is overflowing with?

I am a person who does not believe in flooding my wardrobe with 500 clothes and 40 shoes; I have a limited set of clothes.

You have hardest time getting dressed for:

I am an extremely quick dresser. The longest time I take on the sets and home would not be more that 6 minutes and that to with make-up.

Any fashion disaster you have come across recently?

Not really.

If you had to choose a fashion era, which period will it be?

I will choose this era.
