Out of the many unique and popular shows on Life OK, the channel plans to roll out yet another show, Tumhari Pakhi - Intezaar Mein, starring Iqbal Khan opposite Shradhha Arya which will go on air on 11 November at 9:30 pm.

The fine-looking actor Iqbal has performed in a variety of shows such as Kaisa Yeh Pyar Hai (Sony Entertainment Television), Kahiin To Hoga (Star Plus), Kkavyanjali (Star Plus) and Yahaan Main Ghar Ghar Kheli (Zee TV) amongst others. He has also acted in some films, the most prominent being Imtiaz Punjabi's Fun2shh... Dudes in the 10th Century.

On his character in his new Life OK show, Iqbal commented, "I play the character role of Anshuman on the show. Tumhari Pakhi is a very feel good show and I assure that the viewers will get to see some real natural performances. I agreed to do the show because of all the positive reasons. Great story, great characters, reputed producer and the popularity of Life OK. What more would an actor want?"

But considering there is a clutter of love shows on-air, how will the show sustain? The talented Iqbal said, "I feel there are a lot of people out there waiting and wanting more and more. Each show has a different feel and connect. There are enough eyeballs generated for every show that goes out there and I do not think there can be a genre conflict while choosing shows."

"I feel that any show can be shown many number of times in different ways; the only thing is how well you use the chord of emotion. Inshallah we will make things work through our show," he said as he exuded confidence.

The show is being produced by Shashi Sumeet Productions Pvt Ltd. We wish the young man all the very best!!!
