

ZEE TV confirms August launch for 'Sanjog'

Jul 30, 2010 12:53 AM | Read / Post comments

ZEE TV UK has confirmed that it has scheduled its much talked about new drama, 'Sanjog Se Bani Sangini', loosely based on 'Devdas', to start from mid-August.

'Sanjog Se...' is produced by DJ's

Creative Unit and will see the return of popular actor Iqbal Khan on the small screen after two years away.

The show is about Rudra (Iqbal Khan) who fails to get his childhood like Pihu, played by Additi Gupta and takes to alcohol. At this point of time, enters Gauri (Binny Sharma) into his life like a breath of fresh air.

Veteran actresses Aruna Irani and Sudha Chandran will be playing pivotal roles in the show. The former will play Iqbal's grandmother and Sudha plays the role of Binny's grandmother in 'Sanjog Se...'

With the launch of 'Sanjog Se...' on Tuesday 17th August (Monday 16th August in India), ZEE TV UK has confirmed that it will be moving 'Karol Bagh' to the 19:00 slot. 'Sanjog Se...' will then occupy the 22:00 band. 'Simply Sapney' aired currently at 19:00 will move to 22:30.