

When Iqbal was set ablaze...

Celebrating Ganpati with a Dance Dhamaka at 8 PM in a special 2-hour episode of Pavitra Rishta on Sunday, 19th September, Zee TV has roped in some of its most popular stars to shake a leg and raise a toast to the elephant-god! At the recent shoot for this episode, actor Iqbal Khan is said to have wowed the entire unit with his daredevil attitude while performing a rather risky stunt. Dancing to the song Kurbaan Hua, Iqbal is seen setting his arms ablaze in the middle of the act with merely a pair of protective gloves saving his skin from third-degree burns. Having already done a brilliant job with the first take, Iqbal Khan was busy guzzling down a gallon of water after all the heat exposure. At this point, the director of the shoot, unsure if he should ask, apologetically requested for a second take for technical purposes. Without batting an eyelid, Iqbal got up and donned the gloves amidst roaring applause from the unitwallahs. "A man's gotta do what a man's gotta do. If everybody decides to throw a tantrum, real work will never get done. If the director believes a second take is required, I consider it my job to deliver, irrespective of whether it's a comfortable shot or not" That's the spirit, Iqbal! Looking every bit the lady-killer he is in a vest and jeans, this rock star is said to have packed in a powerhouse performance for Pavitra Rishta's Ganpati Bappa Ka Pujan. Don't miss this for the world!
