

Love is in the air again...

The tale of love 'Sanjog Se Bani Sangini' to feature on Zee TV chronicles the beautiful intersection of Gauri and Rudra's starkly different lives and the unusual circumstances that find them grappling with the true meaning of love together. Will Rudra and Gauri let go of their emotional baggage and find happiness in each other's arms? Will love bloom in their lives once again? Only time will tell. Set against the scenic backdrop of Haridwar, 'Sanjog Se Bani Sangini' is a love story that's bound to tug at your heart-strings!

Playing Rudra, the man jilted in love, is none other than heartthrob Iqbal Khan who returns to the small screen after a hiatus of two years. Speaking of his much-awaited comeback, Iqbal said, "It's great to be back! The new role excites me because it's nothing that I have attempted so far. I loved the character when I heard the script and I hope the audience loves him just as much!"

Making her acting debut on television as Gauri is Zee TV's own discovery, Binny Sharma, the girl from Ahmedabad who shot to fame as one of the top 4 finalists of the Season 2 of Dance India Dance. Ecstatic on having landed the role, Binny said, "Bagging this role has been a dream come true! People have appreciated me as a dancer so far. Now's my chance to make my mark as an actress."

Raising the bar of expectations even higher, the show's cast boasts of veterans like Aruna Irani and Sudha Chandran playing pivotal roles. Commenting on the channel's latest offering, Mr. Nitin Vaidya, Business Head- Zee TV & COO- ZEEL said, "Sangini is a very different and unique love story."
