All you Iqbal Khan fans finally have reason to rejoice. He's all set to rock the small screen as a dashing flight lieutenant in Star's Choona Hai Aasman, where he shares screen space with Vivan Bhatena. Iqbal, who's been on an extended hiatus post his wedding to long-time sweetheart Sneha, is looking forward to getting back to his first love, acting...

5 Things in a woman that turn you on:
Long hair, a nose-pin, clean feet, nice smell and most importantly, simplicity!

4 Romantic things you've done for your wife, Sneha:

When Sneha got her nose pierced, I got her a diamond nose-pin. I remember once, on her birthday, when I hardly had any time and very little money, I got some cheap chocolate cake and decorated the room with buntings. Sometimes I'd pack-up after a very long day, at 8 am in the morning. After that, I'd go to her place and take her for breakfast. And the fourth most romantic thing would be the fact that every mango season, I make sure she has at least five mangoes a day, because Sneha absolutely loves mangoes. There are boxes all over the place!

3 Things you want to change about yourself:
My house, my car and my hairstyle.

2 Most expensive things you've bought yourself:
My Hyundai Accent, which was my first car. And an engagement ring (diamond of course!) for Sneha. Both were priceless!

1 Television actress you find incredibly good-looking:
Aamna Shariff. I think Pallavi Kulkarni is very pretty too.
