

Rumour of Sanjog Se Bani Sangini being under the scanner are looming large but lead actors Iqbal Khan and Binny Sharma, are fighting tooth and nail to put up a good show and fight for its survival. Actors traditionally do not interfere with the storyline or creative duties but Iqbal we hear has been actively involved himself with every aspect of the plot since its inception.

Few days ago, while reading his dialogues and script, he realised there was no link between the two scenes written for him. According to the screenplay, Rudra had to romance Gauri amidst a high voltage drama which involved Rudra trying to reclaim his sister's lost jewellery and the inclusion of romance here was completely off track, Iqbal thought.

According to a source, "He tried to express his discomfort in doing the scene but when his pleas fell on deaf ears, he stormed off the sets. Knowing Iqbal's conviction about the story, the producer requested him to return to the sets and also altered the script."

Iqbal said, "I know my character of Rudra in and out. If there is something I feel will not work then I refuse to act against my convictions. It's not necessary to add a scene that will not go with the rest of the track. It should be tweaked depending on the situation. As actors, we all have the right to give our inputs as no one wants to look foolish on screen. We all work hard to put up a good show and not just dish out anything to our viewers. Sangini and the role of Rudra are very dear to me and I'm always striving to keep my fans happy."

Well, now only if his efforts paid off and the channel decided to save the show.
